ORDER

BARBARA MOSES, United States Magistrate Judge.

As discussed at today's status conference, within one week of the close of fact discovery, the parties, through counsel, must conduct at least one good-faith settlement discussion in real time (meaning, in person or by phone or videoconference) for at least 45 minutes. The parties must then file a joint letter advising the Court whether they seek a judicially supervised settlement conference, and if so, when. If the parties disagree as to whether a settlement conference would be productive, any party may submit a confidential letter to chambers by email, addressed to Moses_NYSDChambers@nysd.uscourts.gov (marked "Confidential Settlement Material"), explaining that party's view.
